Dear Year 5 students, Parents and Carers, Monday 9 November

Please find below important dates and information for elections for our upcoming leadership roles.

If you are considering applying for one of these roles, please make sure you are prepared and organised by the due date, as this is an important part of being a leader.

Those students not elected for the Executive of Student Representative Council (SRC) can still apply to be a YCDI Ambassador or Sports House captains. Classroom SRC representatives will be elected in early 2016, once classes are organised.
